Specification

1. The amendment filed Sept 28, 2005 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the added steps i)-iii) of claims 1-25 and 27-37, and features a)-c) of claim 27 are not taught in originally filed disclosure and are neither implied nor inherent to invention in so far as the particularly claimed instances of gaming terminal software being downloaded is not disclosed wherein the game outcome is determined via execution of the gaming terminal software on the gaming terminal, as specifically claimed.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: alternatively, the cited steps i)-iii) and features a)-c) appear to lack antecedent basis with respect to originally filed disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-25 and 27-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter that was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Specifically, the originally filed specification fails to support instances of gaming terminal software adapted for 'i) determining a game outcome for a game played on a gaming terminal wherein the game outcome is determined via execution of the gaming terminal software on the gaming terminal, ii) determining a value amount available for dispensation at the gaming terminal based on a wager made on the game and based upon the determined game outcome wherein the value amount is determined via execution of the gaming terminal software on the gaming terminal and wherein the gaming terminal is operable to dispense the value amount via a tangible media; and iii) displaying the game outcome at the gaming terminal via execution of the gaming terminal software on the gaming terminal', as particularly claimed; and, the gaming terminal operable to receive 'a) the first instance of the gaming terminal software from the first server, b) execute the first instance of the gaming terminal software to generate a first game outcome and to determine a first value amount for dispensation from the gaming terminal and c) execute the first instance of the gaming terminal software to display the game outcome on the gaming terminal', as particularly claimed (supra). Although the originally filed specification discloses distributing gaming applications to a plurality of sites located in a plurality of regulatory regions that stores a plurality of gaming applications on at least one server and distributing a subset of the gaming applications from the server to at least one of the gaming sites located in one of the regulatory regions and states the gaming applications includes slot, poker, bingo, keno and lottery games (para. 23, 30-31), there is no disclosure, expressed, implied or inherent, that suggests invention performing the particular steps i)-iii) and a)-c) as presently claimed. The requirement that the Applicant demonstrate possession of claimed invention at time of filing of application is lacking in this instance (sic).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-25 and 27-37 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Also, there is no remark that no new matter was added and no citations provided where such steps/features were disclosed in originally filed disclosure.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

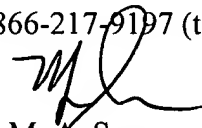

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
